The mineral specimen enclosed in your letter of the 22d inst, which came to hand this A.M. is well calculated to mislead an inexperienced person, but it is merely sulphate of iron, and of no value.

The Mint is too busy with its regular work to make assays of ores for private parties; but Messrs Booth & Garrett, Chant St and Prof Genth. of the University of Penna, this City, are reliable private assayers, to either of whom you can send specimens for assay, if you think it worth while to do so. There charge would be from $5 to $10. in each case, according to [illegible]

Sept 29 5

Sir

Your letter of the 27th inst. in relation to the coinage of the 3¢ and 5¢ nickel pieces, has been received.

In my letter of the 27th inst. replying to yours of the 24th inst. asking for certain minor coinage statistics, a partial answer was given to your present inquiries.

About ten days or two weeks ago, on the suggestion of our Melter & Refiner, that he had no silver to melt except what we had ourselves refined, and for which only one half his force was required, that a small amount of nickel was still on hand.

and knowing the orders for the minor coins were large, and could not be filled without a delay of three or four weeks, under these circumstances, and to give temporary employment to Prof Booths men, I suggested the working up of the small amount of nickel we had into five cent pieces, and thus while employing a force which otherwise would have had little or nothing to do, aid in filling the outstanding orders. All the nickel was used some days ago, and the melting of that metal suspended - a few planchets only remain to be coined. This order was given with the best intentions, and I confess that I had misapprehended the extent of the order of May 8. 1875. not having seen it for some months, and forgetting its general tenor until my attention was called to it by your note. The coinage has now been entirely suspended, except as to the few remaining flan chests and will not be resumed until otherwise ordered.

I may further add that the coinage of the nickels, as above stated, in no way, directly or indirectly, interfered with the silver coinage, but was a saving to the Government by using a form that would otherwise have unprofitably employed.

Very Respectfully

Your letter of the 27th inst, asking whether we can take say, fifty thousand dollars of the 8¢ and 5¢ nickel pieces for the purpose of reissue, has been received.

We can receive and reissue the coines named, but would respectfully suggest, that as our vault room is limited, the entire amount should not be sent us at once, but in instalments of from 10 to $20,000 say every ten days.

Any instructions you may be pleased to give in relation to these coins we will comply with cheerfully. We will receive them for redemption and reissue as heretofore in such cases. Please send no other than the 3¢ and 5¢ at present.

I herewith transmit, in duplicate, for payment, bill of Mr. S. G. Coughton. 15728 Arch St. Philadelphia. $46.00. for 12½ doz mattresses forwarded to the Denver Mint from Boston, July 8 1875, upon a requisition from Assayer Schirmer, under date of June 8 1875, forwarded to me in your letter of June 14. 1875.

This bill was overlooked by Mr. Coughton, as he verbally explained to me yesterday, and he stated in the note herewith enclosed, that the bill of lading was sent with the mattresses.

Letter 9

Sir

Your letter of the 2nd inst. asking estimate of the sum that would probably be necessary to defray Mint expenses at the Edinburgh Exhibition, has been received.

It would not be advisable to take to the Exhibition the Cabinet of coins in our Mint, as some have proposed. I would suggest the impropriety. But I think with you, that a "duplicate set of the coins and medals of our country, with such other objects of interest as possess both intrinsic value and not easily damaged." Your estimate of $5000. is certainly sufficient to defray any proper expense of the exhibition of coins, medals &c made at, or connected with our mining Institutions, and therefore I concur in your suggestion of that sum as the amount to be appropriated.

Your letter of the 28th inst enclosing papers relating to a badge to be worn by the officers of the National Association of Veterans of the Mexican war, has been received

Our Engraver informs me that he thinks that it is all sufficiently explained to enable him to engrave the necessary dies for the same, and will give the subject his best attention.

In the correspondence sent mention is made of a bronze cannon to be used for the purpose of manufacturing the above badges. It would observe that the bronze metal used for cannon is not the bronze used by us for medals or badges, and would be impossible for us to make them out of that metal, unless largely mixed with soft metal.

In reply to your inquiry of the 28th inst. I have to state that "the amount approximately of Silver Bullion on hand available for manufacture into subsidiary coin for say the month of October," is as follows. In the Melter & Refiners hands about 250,000 ozs of unparted Bore silver, with 30,000 ozs additional refined, and in process of refining with a capacity of refining say 200,000 ozs. or more during that month. In the Boiners hands about 55,000 ozs. In the Weigh blocks none. I herewith enclose statement from the Melter & Refiner and Boiner.

At the close of business yesterday, September 30. I made the usual monthly count and examination of the monies in the hands of the Cashier of the Mint, with the following result.

Gold	$975,716.17
Silver	362,630.78
Ord. & regular	16,156.01
Minor boinage	64,294.40
" boins Exchanged	2,819.17
" " Reissued	3,940.00
" boinage Redemption	11,935.02
	$1,437,491.55

Your inquiries of the 14th and 20th ult. about the per diem of Mr. A. G. Rowland. Assay Department have been received.

The failure to enter his per diem on the pay rolls for August at the reduced rate was an inadvertance in making up the rolls. It would be an added hardship to Mr Rowland to refund the amount now, and if agreeable to you, the Assayer and myself would be gratified if the reduction could be made to take effect from September 1st instead of August 1st. I enclose an earnest request to that effect, from the Assayer.

If this cannot be done, then I recommend that he be allowed to refund the over-payment of 20 cts a day for August, out of his per diem for October, instead of calling on him for the money now.

Your letter of the 1st inst. giving instructions as to the amount of the various denominations of subsidiary silver pieces to be coined, has been received, and will be observed.

You also notify us that 200 000 ozs fine silver will be sent from the New York Assay Office so soon as it can be broken. We will be pleased to receive it in that form.

In this same letter referring to one of the reasons assigned for the coinage of the nickel-copper pieces, viz the short supply of silver

Bullion. you say, "that contingency would not have arisen had you advised this office that more silver bullion was required to carry out its instructions." This censure is not deserved. Notice was given your department as the enclosed copy of telegrams of August 14. 1878 will show. On the 6th of September 1878, the Acting Director notified us that $500,000 of unparted bars would be sent us from Carson Mint in parcels of $100,000 commencing the 6th of September, and the first parcel would arrive on or about the 10th. It did not however, reach us till the 16th, and then the amount was $95,000. This delay was no fault of ours. When received it must be parted

Sir,

Yours of the 2nd inst. in relation to matter re-ported by the Assayer has been received. I regret that the Assayer in disregard of the courtesy that is due from a subordinate to his superior officer should have written directly to you without sending his communication through me. You have condemned this course most emphatically and I cannot be approved.

In reply I herewith forward copy of the communications from Prof. Booth who assumed the responsi-bility of receiving the bullion and after careful consideration of the subject I think rightly. We are clearly within the law and no rule or regulation can alter or repeal an Act of Congress. If we are to comply with the urgent requests of the Treasury Department for subsidiary Silver Coinage some little discretion must be allowed, a margin that will safely facilitate our work, not retard it, as the hypercritical construction of the Assayer would do.

Prof. Barth's letters, one before, the other after your letter was received, contain the answer and the explanation to and of the statements in the Assayers note to you.

Oct 26 8

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 30th ult. asking an explanation of the melting & coining of certain old Copper Cents, I have to say that the melting referred to, was if not a literal, a full and legal compliance with the instructions of your note of the 9th June 1870. At least such was my intention and I believe also of the other officers of this Mint. Before answering more fully, a brief history of the redemption and coinage of the old Copper cents may be useful.

1st. On the Sixth of June 1870 prior to the passage of the Coinage Act of 1873, the then Secretary of the Treasury directed the old Copper Cents and the 1st Copper Nickel pieces to be melted and recoined.

2d. On the 11th day of April 1870, after the Coinage Act became a law, you as Director of the Mint in your letter to me of that date said "you are authorized to recoin the old Copper Cents and the 12 per cent Nickel One cent coins &c

This recoinage of the old Copper cents not only saved the Government from loss, but fully reimbursed the redemption fund with a profit in addition of at least 100 per cent of the sale value of the old coppers melted. On the other hand when they were melted and cast into bars and sold as old Copper the loss was very great, comparing the sale value with the proceeds of the sale of the melted Copper cents. Large profits from melting & coining – large losses from melting and selling the bars.

Permit me now to say that the old cent weighed 168 grains and the new cent weighs 168 grains, so that the old cent will make three and one half new cents, not taking into account the small mixture of tin & zinc to convert it into bronze. But allowing for tin and zinc, wastage &c &c will have at least 3 new cents for every old one, a profit of 200 per cent after reimbursing the Redemption fund.

In melting & coining we complied with your instructions in this, that instead of melting and casting it bars and selling them at a great loss we melted, and [illegible] the product (new cents) for a sum three times greater than the sale value of the old cent – that as there was no loss (but large profit) there was no necessity to pay the difference out of the appropriation for that purpose - and as we made a sum sufficient to reimburse the Redemption fund and a large additional profit besides, it cannot be said that the Minor Coinage profits were made to pay (even) in effect the difference - for there was no difference and no loss to be thus adjusted.

So far from disregarding the instructions of your note of the 9th June 1875 we have fulfilled them as I believe faithfully, as also the previous instructions of the letters of June 6/70 and 10th Apl 1873 and that to the great gain of the Government.

We also needed copper & used the old cents to avoid the necessity of purchasing new copper at a loss.

I enclose a copy of Prof. Booth's letter in explanation of the use of these cents and the profit and loss involved according as the cents were reissued or sold as old copper.

From what has been said & explained it will be seen at once that the debit & credit entries in our Accounts as heretofore sent to you were "pro forma" and to preserve the true nature of this transaction.

Washington D.C.

of October 8th which refers to Silver ingots under the 28th Section of the Coinage Act.

In reply to your inquiries of the 6th inst. I answer.

1. That the Mint price of standard silver is $1.24.4 per ounce in subsidiary silver coin.

2. We have no official knowledge of the market value of gold or silver coins, nor has any Mint Report ever contained any tabulated statement of their market value.

3. The weight of the U. S. Trade Dollar is 420 grains, 900 the fineness 378 the value, in subsidiary silver coin, $1.03.8+, which includes the coinage charge of $1.00 per 100 pieces.

4 The weight of the U. S. Half-Dollar of the present coinage is 12½ grammes.

Oct 13 5

Sir

Your letter of the 11th inst has been received.

Enclosed I forward copy of the contract with Messrs Melvin & McMorris for the Artesian well, as requested.

The well - connections - tanks - pumps &c have been completed in a very satisfactory manner, as determined by my personal examination, and the report of Prof. Booth, Samuel James, Machinist, James Cowden, Carpenter, and Hugh Kilpatrick, our Engineer. The well has a capacity of 70 to 100 gallons per minute. It will be of great benefit to this Institution.

In explanation of the payment of the bill of Lyed O'Neil, petty &c. for plumbing &c. from the appropriation for artesian well, I have to say that it was through inadvertance marked by Prof Booth as payable out of that fund; the work having been actually done for the Melter & Refiner in the refining room, in repairing and fixing the lead lining of the reducing vats, and had no connection with the artesian well. The work was, in an emergency, done by the plumber of Melvin & McMorris, but not for them, and therefore should not have been paid by them. Prof. Booth, anxious to complete the repairs to the Refinery asked and obtained my consent to employ Mr O'Neil for a few days, and Messrs Melvin & McMorris kindly complied with his request.

The sum of $8,40 should be charged to the general appropriation for contingent expenses, and not to the Artesian well fund. This change in the would increase the balance protanto of the artesian well fund, and decrease the balance of general appropriation in same amount simply a transposition in the accounts.

By the present Mint Laws we pay out trade dollars in exchange for silver bullion. Half dollars and small sizes are coined only for the Government; and can only be had in exchange for gold coin of the U. S. at par.

We cannot tell how much bullion must be sent, because that depends on its quality and fineness. A trade dollar contains 378 grains fine silver, or 420 grs standard silver; and the Mint charge for making it is one cent. See enclosed circulars.

Oct 25th 5

A bill for $2,500 for Copper furnished to the Melter and Refiner's department of this Mint, certified to be correct by the Melter & Refiner, has been presented today for payment by Messrs. Pope, Cole, & Co of Baltimore, Md, but the balance of our contingent fund on hand is not over $1000 and I have been obliged to withold payment until we can be placed in funds. This delay in a cash sale works inconvenience and injury to Pope Cole & Co and is prejudicial to the credit of the Mint.

To meet this emergency, I have taken the liberty to make out and herewith enclose a special requisition for the sum of $5000 on account of contingent expenses, to carry us through the month of October; and if it meets your approval, should be glad to receive a draft for the amount at the earliest convenient moment.

Very Respectfully

A shipment of $20,000. Minor Coins has been received at this Mint from the U. S. Asst Treas. Boston. A portion of it amounting to some $2900. consisting of 1st Bronze & 1st Nickel pieces, is found to be mixed instead of being assorted as to kind and denomination as the Regulations for the Redemption of Minor Coins require. Coins received in this way cause great inconvenience to the Mint as it requires at least four times longer to assort them than it does to count them, and necessarily retards the work of redemption as well as reissue. In assorting the $2900- referred to, it will take five men at least four days, at a cost of $75- to the Mint, and in the meantime, no coins can be counted for reissue. In view of these facts, would it not be well for you to make such suggestions to the Treasury Department as will in the future prevent, if possible, Minor Coins being received and forwarded to the Mint in this condition

In forwarding this communication for your consideration, I have to add that I heartily concur in the request of

of our operative officers. We are about out of silver bullion, but with increased facilities for working it, and if it be not interfering with any other contemplated disposal of the silver referred to by Mr. Mason, I am desirous that it should be forwarded to this Mint for coinage, as suggested.

Your confidential letter of October 19th in reference to the proposed purchase of the Church building and lot adjoining the Mint on the West was duly received.

After some delay and difficulty in getting at the responsible parties, I have ascertained that the owners will not take less than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) and I believe it can be secured at that price, certainly not exceeding $250,000. The Public Buildings have enhanced somewhat the value of the property.

The lot has a front of one hundred and eight (108) feet on Broad street by one hundred (100) feet on Penn Square, and with the building, is admirably adapted to Mint purposes. The church fronts about seventy (70) feet on Broad street. It is strong and well built and can readily be adapted to our purposes in a short time, and at a comparatively small expense. Its acquisition is very desirable, and will give us full minting capacity, at same time obviating all all necessity or pretext for any more new Mints at New York, or elsewhere.

I should add here that the parties with whom I conferred, were not informed that the inquiry was made in behalf of the U. S. Government

M. for examining into and reporting on the feasibility of storing water at the Mint from the artesian well. I also enclose a letter from Prof. Booth, our Melter & Refiner, explaining the nature and importance of Mr Trowbridge's services in this matter.

The balance of the appropriation for the artesian well, about $290, having been covered into the Treasury, I am without funds to pay this bill, and if it meets your approval

Dear Sir

I do not know that the case you propound is open to a "line of argument." It is simply a calculation from fixed data. The sovereign should weigh 123 $\frac{71}{128}$ grains, at 916 $\frac{2}{3}$ fine. The gold dollar, 25.8 grains, at 900 fine. By simply multiplying, you have the fine gold in each case; say 113.001605 grs. for the British coin, 23.22 grs. for the American. You will then find that the valuation of the £ stg fixed by Act of Congress of 1873, at $4.86.65 is as near as need be, altho' it might be carried out further.

Truly yours

Sir,

The following is the result of assays of samples of Japanese gold and silver coin, as requested by the Department of State, through the Director of the Mint.

I set down the assays of the Mint of Japan, as well as the assays made here, for the sake of comparison.

Gold.

	Japan Assay.	U.S. assay.
5 Yen, single piece	899.8	900.0
" another	900.1	900.3
" another	900.3	900.4
Quantity, melted together	900..05	900.1

Silver.

	Japan assay.	U.S. assay
Silver Yen	900.6	900.6
Another	900.4	900.4
Another	900.0	900.2
Trade Dollar	900.0	900.4
Another	900.4	900.4
Another	900.8	900.8
Silver Yen, quantity melted	900.6	900.4
Trade dollar "	900.2	900.6
Twenty Sen pieces "	799.9	799.2
Ten Sen pieces "	800.7	800.0
Five Sen pieces "	800.1	800.6

We consider the correspondence very satisfactory.

Herewith we returned the slips of gold and silver not used. The ductility of the metal is worthy of remark.

Sir

Your letter of the 4th inst. in relation to the removing of the columns on the front of the Mint building, has been received.

I am much gratified to learn that new columns will be put up; and obliged to you for the interest you have taken in this matter. It is true that the north front and planks ought to be cleaned and repaired to correspond with the improvements of the front; but I fear our ordinary funds will be inadequate to meet that and the ordinary expenses of the Mint. By reason of the extraordinary expenses in enlarging and refitting our Refinery the increased amount of refining done and to be done, and the consequent large increase in the material used in refining, acids, copper &c, we have expended of our contingent fund, to this date (x months in the current fiscal year) $[illegible], equal to a monthly expenditure of $7,[illegible], or yearly of over $90,000,—the total amount of annual appropriation being $75,000. Although our expenses may hereafter be somewhat less than the above monthly average, I am anxious to avoid the necessity of asking for an appropriation for deficiencies; and therefore would respectfully suggest, if approved by yourself and the Secretary of the Treasury, that the additional cleaning and repairs be referred to the Supervising Architect, and the cost be charged to the fund for repairing public buildings. If however you deem it best to have the work done under my supervision, and paid out of our contingent fund, I will give it full attention, and have it done as economically as possible. I have already made inquiry as to the probable cost, the parties most competent to do the work &c. I am satisfied that the work required can be done for less than the sum you name. Please let me hear from you, and say how soon the work shall be commenced. I saw Mr McArthur this morning and he informed me that the new columns would be put up under his directions, and he also suggested that the cleaning of the other parts of the building could be done under the same supervision, and paid out of the repairing fund; and be done more economically.

Awaiting your decision.

Gentlemen.

Your letter of the 9th which was received yesterday, during my temporary absence from the city.

As an accommodation to you I have acceded for this one occasion to receive the light gold coin you sent by express in payment for moneys, as bullion, not as coin, and let the loss fall on the Mint: but hereafter in bidding for moneys, you will do so with the distinct and positive understanding that you are to pay for them in new U. S. gold coin of full weight for no other will be received.

The coin received for moneys goes into our bullion fund to be paid out again to parties who deposit bullion for coinage, and must therefore, be new and without any perceptible abrasion. The Mint is not a disbursing agency, but a department of issue. The Mint law requires that none but gold and silver coins of standard weight and fineness be issued. This rule is arbitrary, and coins which an Asst Treasurer may pay out legally under the allowance for abrasion cannot be received or paid out over the counter of the Mint without violation of law, and of course to the damage of the regulations of the Mint.

Referring to my letter to you [illegible] through the U. S. Marshal of this City, in reference to the assay of certain fine and nickel pieces, I now have to ask, that as it is very desirable to smash counterfeiting, and as we are ready to do all in our power towards it you had better send us another coin of the same kind and our Engraver will examine it carefully, so as to be able to swear whether it is from his die or not.

The assay is of less account, because counterfeiters can well afford to put in the full amount of nickel and make it right.

If we had known that testimony was needed for a court we would have taken particular pains to be ready for it. But we are constantly called on for opinions of this kind, and we dismiss the matter from our minds as soon as it is done with.

Your letter of the 16th inst has been received.

The piece you speak of is doubtless a coin of Connecticut, struck in 1780, before the establishment of the U. S. Mint. "Auctori Connec" means "by authority of Connecticut." Inde Et Lib. - Independence and Liberty.

We can furnish proof sets of U. S. coins issued during the present year, but not of previous years. The terms you will find stated in the circular herewith sent you.

Several kinds of one-cent pieces were issued by the U. S. Mint in 1798-99-90, and in 1817, and 1839. There was only one kind in 1881.

The 2¢ bronze was first issued in 1864, and discontinued April 1. 1873.

The 5¢ copper-nickel was first issued in 1865, and is still coined.

The silver 3¢ piece was first issued in 1851, and discontinued April 1. 1873.

Trade Tokens are valued by some collectors in proportion to their scarcity. There are none in the Mint Cabinet. There is no end to them.

Col. Frank M. Ellis, No. 506 Walnut Street, this City, has got up a very fine Museum of Continental relics in Independence Hall, and I suggest that you

Yours of the 19th inst has been received.

Silver will be converted into Trade Dollars (the weight of which is 420 grains) at the rate of one and a quarter per cent on the face or nominal value.

The value of a Trade Dollar in subsidiary silver coin is $1.00.

We do not purchase silver in small lots as formerly, but receive it only as a deposit payable in Trade Dollars at the rate named.

Sir

Referring to our conversation on Wednesday the 24th inst in my office, I desire now to respectfully suggest that in view of the delay in filling orders for the 3 and 20 cent nickel-copper coin - the redemption and reissue of such coin being insufficient to meet the demand, the order of the Secretary of the Treasury of May 24th 1870 suspending the coinage of such pieces be revoked and authority given, by him, to resume; limiting the coinage of said pieces to such the amount on hand shall not exceed in value more than [illegible] of each denomination

-giving to the Superintendent a discretion within this limit. Our orders are increasing, and we are required to delay the filling of orders for from 4 to 6 weeks. The interest of the Government and people would be promoted by revoking the order of May 8, 1875.

Again for the purpose of furnishing material for the bronze, and the nickel-copper coinage, I would also suggest and urge that authority be given by the Secretary of the Treasury, to the Superintendent to transfer to the Melter & Refiner the old (large) copper cents, the nickel-copper cents, and all bronze and mutilated coins of whatever denomination or character for recoinage. Experience has shown that such transfers for recoinage have not only prevented loss, but been largely profitable to the Government; and avoid the necessity of purchasing new material. The authority to recoin the two cent bronze pieces, and the mutilated one cent bronze coins has been given, and is in full force. On the revocation of the order of May 8. 1878, the transfer of the nickel & copper cents, under existing authority could be made, but to avoid all conflict of construction or jurisdiction, a general order by the Secretary of the Treasury embracing all the minor coins not reissuable, would be judicious and wise; the transfer to be made by the Superintendent to the Melter & Refiner for recoinage in the exercise of a careful discretion.

At your request made in the conversation above referred to, I respectfully submit these matters for the consideration and action of yourself and the Secretary of the Treasury.

Your letter of the 29th ult. has been received.

When not occupied by his regular official duties, our Assayer is authorized as a matter of accommodation, to make assays of ores, but only to find gold and silver, but not other metals. Our charge is $5.00 for each specimen assayed, to cover the cost of the transaction. We are very busy at this time and could not make the assay for some time. Your better plan would be to send your ores to Messrs Booth & Garrett, Branch St. this city, who are thoroughly competent analytical chemists.

I have your letter of yesterday informing me that you have requested the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer the Sum of $14.152 21 from the Bullion Fund of this Mint to the Assay Office at New York, the same being the difference between the value of 105.402. 67/100 Standard ounces Silver Bullion received from that Office on the 24th inst calculated at 1 24, and the cost thereof.

I beg to ask respectfully how the transfer of Coin from the Bullion Fund can correct the clerical error in drawing the Transfer Order for the above? The trouble, if I understand the matter correctly, is simply an error in in stating the value of the silver at its Coinage rate, instead of the cost, and I can see no way of giving the Silver Profit & Loss a/c. the credit of the gain, as stated in yours of the 29th ult., other than by treating it at its actual cost through the Bullion Fund.

Rome

Sir

The Bullion Fund stands credited with the sum of $131.138.63, which is $14.152.21 too much (in figures only) and a simple counter entry, with a corrected statement and Transfer Order for the true value will correct the a/c, while the withdrawal of the above sum in coin will only deplete the Bullion Fund, and it appears to me, fail to adjust the a/c.

A few days ago a Committee of the Association, General Denver, Chairman, called here to ascertain the cost, including metal of striking and mounting the medal or badge. I herewith enclose copy of a letter to me from the Engraver on the general subject of the medal, and giving an estimate of the cost. The cost as you will see, including the medal at 30 cts, will be $1,05. I also enclose a specimen of the badge mounted. The ribbon will red white and blue, and fitted to the size of the badge. If the Committee desire the medal to be struck here, we are ready for the order. I have to state for your official information, that to clean redeemed copper-nickel coins, we dip momentarily in aquafortis, and then finish by a dip in pure nitric acid; the moment it is finished the pieces are thrown into water containing a mere trace of sulphuric acid. Sir

I have this morning received your letter of the 7th inst requesting me to strike and forward to you, six-sixteen inch intermediate coin from the dies prepared for you in 1854.

I am unable to comply with your request, for two reasons.

1. There is no authority of law to justify me in doing so.

2. The die sunk in striking the last specimens, and being now destroyed, can no longer be used for your purpose.

Sir

I duly received your letter of the 16th inst. enclosing a copy of one from the Asst Treasurer U. S. at Philadelphia giving a statement of his weighings of certain gold coins received by me from the Asst Treasurer at New Orleans, and transferred from the Mint to the Asst Treasurer at Philadelphia by order of the Treasurer U. S.

In reply to your suggestions in this connection, I have to recall your attention to your letter to me of the 23d of October ultimo, directing that each piece of those New Orleans gold coins should be "separately weighed by the adjusters and divided into two lots as followed. All pieces found to weigh a quarter of a grain or more above the least current weight to be placed in one parcel, and all of less weight in another." This was done in literal compliance with your instructions, and the results reported to you. There seems to have been some misapprehension with regard to that report on the part of the U. S. Treasurer, but the inadvertance can readily be corrected by directing the said Treasurer at Philadelphia to return the light coins (84.7 10.5) to the Mint for recoinage.

There does not seem to be any occasion to examine and compare beams and weights, there not being any discrepancy that I am aware of. The weighings by the Asst Treasurer in this City, not being the same as ours, nor by the same standard, or for the same classification.

I enclose a communication from the Boiner on the subject and await further instructions.

Sir

I duly received your letter of the 19th inst enclosing copy of communication from J. F. Evans, Esq. Special Agent of the Treasury Department respecting defective coinage of Trade Dollars at the Mint at Carson.

I immediately conferred with the Coiner and Engraver and gave the subject the most careful and exhaustive investigation possible, without any other data to go by than the written testimony submitted; and am entirely satisfied that the imperfect coinage reported is not owing to any defect in the dies, as they do not not differ in any respect from the dies used at this Mint, and the Mint at San Francisco.

I submit herewith the testimony in writing, of the Coiner and Engraver, which you will see is full and suggestive. I entirely concur in the views they express.

The defect referred to in the 10th point made by the Coiner is not in the dies but in the design of the Trade Dollar, which is very difficult to bring up properly. Every effort has been made to improve it.

Mr. Evans report is herewith returned.

Your letter of the 22d. inst. has been received.

The Mint Memorandum No. 327. herewith returned, fully explains the returns for your deposit.

We do not make silver coins less than the dollar for private depositors, as you will see by the enclosed circulars; and the Trade Dollar is worth intrinsically .0884 (eight cents and eight mills) more than two halves or four quarters, being that much heavier. All our silver coins are 900 fine. Your bullion was only 893½ fine. If you will multiply 802 by the Trade dollar value $1.0884, you will get as the product 1873.

In reply to your letter of the 23d inst. I have to state that thirty (30) cents each, by the quantity, not less than 2000, is no more than the actual net cost price of the Medals for the Mexican Veteran Association, leaving no margin of profit whatever, but will barely save us from loss. The ribbon will have to be furnished by private parties, outside of the Mint, and the lowest estimate I could get for them was six cents each, and the cost of the Medal, exclusive of the engraving and mounting, thirty six cents each, and I so informed the Secretary Mr Kenady, on the 22d inst

I had fixed the price, ~~subject to your approval~~ in accordance with with the Regulations, Page 29, paragraph 8, after full and careful consideration, in conjunction with the Coiner and the Engraver, and in view of the peculiar shape of the Medal which will require at least double the amount of labor to get up one of the ordinary circular Medal.

Shall any charge be made for the die? I think a reasonable charge ought to be made, not exceeding the actual cost.

The U. S. silver dollar of 1798 is worth only one dollar, but the dollar of 1804 is very rare and valuable, as only four of them were ever issued. If the one you have is genuine and not a copy it is worth several hundred dollars. If you want to sell it your better plan would be to conduct coin dealers, and ask them to make you an offer for it. They have been sold as low as $500. and as high as $700. We have one in the Mint Cabinet, and do not need another. You can apply to J. W. Haseltine,

Dec 20 -

Sir

Your note of the 24th inst was received.

I directed a full and searching examination of the alledged error in the count of your minor coins at once to be made. I enclose the report of the Redemption clerk and his clerk in explanation. One of our counters rejected 42 of the 25 pieces as too much mutilated for redemption. I directed the rejected pieces to be brought to me, and when produced, as they were promptly, I found that although battered and mutilated, yet they could be recognized as the 25 coin, and should have been counted. I ordered you 85 cts currency in full of the rejected pieces. The 39 ¢ old coppers were found in the mixture of "bronze" and "nickel and copper" cents. Such admixture is not only in violation of the Regulations of the Department but causes us more trouble and annoyance than the regular counting of ten times the amount when properly assorted. You should forbid all such mixtures of coins, and hereafter we will be compelled to reject such for redemption. The rejection of the 4 ¢ mutilated 2 ¢ coin, though well intended, was the mistake of our counter - the mixture of the old copper - bronze and nickel - copper cents - three varieties in one mass, was the fault of your counters.

Gentlemen.

Yours of the 31st ultimo has been received.

We are so busy with coinage work, that we rarely get time to examine ores. That which you sent is a granular galena mixed with iron. and gives no promise of containing silver. We never find Penna galena to contain silver, except a mere trace.

If this is not satisfactory. we recommend Mess. Booth & Garrett. Chant. St or Prof. Genth. University of this City. either of whom will promptly make an assay. We will hand over the ore at your order.

Your letter of the 1st inst has been received.

In reply I have to say that the diameter of the coin is established by the Mint authorities, and not by law. Our coiner presents to me the following facts. There has been a difference in the size of the Dime and Quarter Dollar. The Quarter Dollar from 1796 for several years, was one and eleven hundredth (1 11/100) inches, or one hundred and eleven one hundredth (111/100) inches in diameter. The Dime was seventy-seven one hundredth (77/100) of an inch. For some years previous to 1836 the diameter of the Quarter Dollar was ninety-five one hundredth (95/100) and the Dime seventy one one hundredth (71/100) of an inch in diameter. A change was made in 1806 as to the Dime, making it seventy one hundredths (71/100) of an inch - the Quarter Dollar continuing as before. The early coinage was struck in what we denominate an open collar, and there may be a slight variation in diameter - perhaps not exceeding one one hundredth (1/100) of an inch, but all the coinage with a reeded edge was struck in close collars, and the pieces should be accurately uniform in diameter.

Your letter of the 6th inst. has been received.

As a matter of accommodation the Mint sometimes makes assays of ores when it does not interfere with our regular duties, but only to ascertain if they contain gold or silver. We do not examine for other metals, and the charge is $5. in each case, to cover the cost of the assay. At the present time our assayer could not analyze your ores, on account of the pressure of his regular duties. But Messrs. Your letter of the 6th inst in relation to the price of medals and the manufacture of private dies by Messrs. Soley, and Barber and Son, has been received.

As regards the cost of the various public medals, and medals struck for societies and individuals, I believe from frequent and careful estimates, the price fixed, is as nearly in accordance with the rule you state, and upon which we base our calculations, as possible. The cost or price depends, to some extent upon the quantity or number ordered, and this we consider in the calculation. Our prices have generally been fixed by me, with the approval of the Director, as the 8th rule relating to medals requires. I will however, so soon as possible, reexamine the prices as you suggest and modify the same according to the fact.

I also carefully examined the allegations in reference to the machine made by Mr Soley after the pattern of the Hill Engraving machine. The facts are these. Mr Soley invented, and made for himself a small machine for preparing medal dies, which is not after the pattern of the Hill Engraving machine, and does not infringe on said patent. Mr Soleys machine is ingenious, so small that it can be carried with ease under the arm. and he assures me the design is his own, and no part of the patent of the Hill machine has been infringed.

He has made but few dies himself, and none in the Mint, all at his own house, and out of Mint hours, The Hill Engraving machine has not been used by him or Mr Barber in the manufacture of private medal dies, I may say here, that this machine is and has been for some years, under the control of the Engraver in subordination to myself, and no original dies are or shall be prepared thereon without the sanction of your office. My orders, in accordance with law and regulations, to the Engraver, Soley and all others are imperative, that no dies or work for private parties are to be made in the Mint; neither during working hours or on Mint machinery.

I have also examined into the allegations against Mr Barber & Son,

Mr. Carbin has made a number of dies for outside parties, but as I have already said, he has not used the Hill Engraving machine to aid him in their manufacture, he, or his son, may have, in a leisure hour, worked at some of his dies in the Hill Engraving Machine hours, but this he assures me has not often occurred. I have peremptorily ordered a discontinuance of the practice, first last and all the time. The great trouble, as you suggest and as charged by outside parties, is that he has in his possession the old engraving machine which was superceded by the Hill Engraving machine, and uses this, with improvements made by himself in preparing dies. It was removed to his rooms in 1867 or 8, or about that time. I have no knowledge of the circumstances or terms under which it was removed. This machine, however, still belongs to the Mint, and I have directed him to return it at once, as suggested in your letter, or purchase the same, as he should do, if retained by him. He says he will make an offer for it. As to the mode of selling it whether by addressing letters to Artists, and inviting bids, or taking the offer he may make, will be submitted to you for your action. If the sale of the machine is not advisable it should be returned and retained here. There is the usual jealousy prevailing among Artists, and I believe that the charges made by outside parties against Messrs. Barber and Soley, are, as you say, greatly exaggerated.

So far as I am able to enforce the rules all cause of complaint shall at once be removed. The orders have been given, and will be obeyed.

The Mint does not pay a premium on old cents, or any other coin. Rare coins bring good prices among coin dealers and collectors. You should apply to them for information on that point. The first small cents were coined in 1857. although a few pattern cents were struck in 1850.

I duly received your letter of the 6th inst transmitting for examination three nickel five cent pieces, received by the Secretary of the Treasury from the Asst Treasurer U. S. at New York.

I believed them, upon inspection, to be counterfeit, and upon submitting them to our Engraver, Engraver and Mr Knight of the Bank Redemption office, separately, they each pronounced them, at sight, to be spurious. Mr DuBois has made a written report upon the subject, which I herewith enclose for your consideration. I concur in the views which

Sir

The usual arrangements will be made for the annual assay on the 9th of February next as requested in your letter of the 11th inst.

The presence of Superintendents LaGrange, Crawford and Acton on that occasion will be useful to them and agreeable to me.

Shall I make arrangements to have an assay medal struck? If so advise me as to the number and metal, at your early convenience, as the time is short

I herewith forward for your information a copy of a report made to me by Wm G. Pike, Inspector for the "Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company", of the examination which he made of the Boilers in the Mint. His report is very satisfactory, and accords with the judgment of our Engineer Mr. Kilpatrick, except as to the recommendation in Mr. Pikes postscript. Your letter of the 7th inst. referring to voucher No. 502. of Ordinary Expenditure account for December 1855, and the price for washing towels therein, has been received.

We have been paying for many years past for washing and ironing the towels (at least a yard in length) used by the Superintendent, Operative officers and Clerks, 7 cts per dozen, and nothing for those used by the workmen in the Melters & Refiners Department, and others, these parties washing their own towels.

I have made inquiry among the laundresses as to the price of washing towels - the result has been some ask 80 cts - others 75 cts - 60 cts - 50 cts and 40 cts per doz. - As this matter has been brought to my attention, I propose, in the interest of reform, to pay the lowest sum named - 40 cts - per dozen, a price certainly low enough for the labor performed.

I herewith return the redeemed minor coins, enclosed in your letter of the 19th inst. divided into two classes, one enveloped marked No. 1. and the other No. 2.

The coins in No. 1. are so reduced in weight by punching and clipping, that if presented here we should throw them out and not redeem them.

The lettered coins in No. 2. retain enough of the coined impression to enable them to be identified, and are therefore redeemable. The punched pieces in No 2. do not seem to have any of the metal taken out, but merely displaced, and we have therefore been in the habit of redeeming them, when there are only a few pieces in a lot.

Dear Sir

Referring to your letter of the 17th inst I have to day submitted for your approval in another communication, the appointment of Mr John A Price as Assistant Engineer with a view to reform in that department of the Mint and the establishment of rules and regulations for all the Mints.

Mr. Price is a gentleman of character and education whom I have known many years, and whose services I am fortunate in securing only through the general depression in business. He served for six years as Engineer in the U. S. Navy, having been third Engineer of the "Powhatan" until after the close of the war; when he resigned to go into business on shore. The discipline of the Government service, his long experience there, and the high qualifications required in the Navy, peculiarly fit him in every respect for the special service we need at his hands, at this time. This appointment will place him in the line of promotion, and he so understands it. In due time I shall be able to make such a readjustment of our longmeeting service, as will put the right men in the right place, and assure the smooth, efficient and satisfactory working of that branch of our Mint service.

As soon as convenient, after Mr Grier takes his position, I will in consultation with him, prepare a set of Rules and Regulations for the government of Mint Engineers, and submit them for your consideration.

I learn from the Captain of our Night Watch, that the muskets in use are in good order, but that the pistols, which are the best and most available weapons for instant personal defence, are not in a serviceable condition except one, and their places should be supplied by such as are fit for use.

It occurs to me that a new set of Navy revolvers, or others equal to them, and of the latest improved pattern, say one dozen, could perhaps be supplied to the Mint from the U. S. Armories, thus giving us the best arms for the Centennial season, without any additional expense to the Government. Will you please ascertain if this can be done, and let me know.

I have this morning received and referred to our Engraver, the criticisms of Mr. A. J. Dallas, of Omaha, of the badge engraved for the Mexican War Volunteers, and herewith enclose a copy of Mr. Carter's very convincing reply. In preparing the dies for the proposed badge, the only copy the Engraver had to guide him was the printed design on the cover of the pamphlet issued by the Association in 1870 and that he carefully followed, but improved upon it. The dies have been hardened as you ordered, but fortunately we have not yet begun to strike the badge. If now the Association requires dies to be prepared of a different character, it can be done, if the model be furnished, but it will involve additional expense, and very considerable loss of time. Shall we strike the badges?

I herewith return Mr. Dallas' letter, and the two pencil drawings, and await your instructions.

In reply to your letter of the 2d inst directing 2000 medal badges to be struck from the Mexican War Veterans Association who want them by Saturday or Monday next, I have to state, after consultation with the Coiner, that with our present force and facilities we cannot get out more than fifty of these badges per day. These medals have to be cut out from a rolled strip of copper, then annealed and struck, annealed again, and again struck, and finally cut out again, all this before bronzing.

To expedite this order I propose to temporarily assign two additional men to this work, which will enable us by steady working to get out probably one hundred per day, and this would take a month to fill the order exclusive of other orders for medals which are before it, and must take precedence according to date.

I duly received your letter of the 1st inst. enclosing copy of a report made to your office, under date of January 29th, by Mr. Frederick Eckfeldt, with regard to the defective coinage of Trade Dollars.

In compliance with your request I carefully examined his suggestions, in conjunction with the operating officers of the Mint, whose separate written opinions on the subject I herewith enclose for your information.

As I have heretofore stated to you, my own conviction is is that the main cause of the difficulty is to be found in the character of the prescribed design for the Trade Dollar, which brings a strong relief on one side of the coin, opposite an equally strong relief on the other side.

Our Engraver is making new dies from reduced hubs, that I hope will obviate some of the difficulties heretofore encountered.

I should add here, that the objections made to the Trade Dollar turned out to be known to this Mint, and no application to this Mint, which, as you are aware, is proverbial for the artistic excellence of its coinage.

Febry 23d 6

Sir:

I have received yours of the 21st inst. returning my a/c current for correction as regards the Bullion Fund a/c.

It appears that the sum of $550.000, gold coin, has been transferred to the credit of the Supt. of the Mint at Philadelphia for a/c of Bullion Fund and deposited with the Asst Treas.r U. S. at New York for the purpose of purchasing Silver for the Subsidiary Coinage, and under the provisions of Sec. 27th Coinage Act 1873, these purchases must be made with the Bullion Fund. Now, when I receive from the Nevada Bank $65.052 22/100 in Silver Bars, I add such amount to the Silver in your Bullion Fund, and pay for it with a like amount of your aforesaid gold coin, which transaction does not deplete the amount of the Bullion Fund, but simply substitutes Silver for gold, under the aforesaid law.

The a/c current shows that the Bullion Fund is increased by Gold coin in the sum of $550.000.00

from which gold I pay 61.799.61 leaving $488,200.39
which is reimbursed by Silver 65,052.22 bringing your a/c back to $553,252,61 being an increase over the original sum deposited of $3252 61/100 which sum is a margin of safety, to be paid for on the final delivery and assay of Bullion from the Nevada Bank.
I cannot see where the error lies, and very respectfully submit the matter for your reconsideration.

Very Respectfully
Jas. Ellery
Superintendent.

The five cent counterfeit sent by you, is different from the kind which has appeared lately, and is less likely to deceive.

It is not struck, but is a cast, from a matrix taken from a genuine coin. It is composed of lead and copper; the latter in small proportion, to harden it, and give a little sonority. There is no nickel. It is only 2 grains light.

Its falsity is most observable on the edge; the face being better, but of a leaden hue.

I beg to ask your immediate attention to the enclosed copies of a correspondence between the Hon. Treasurer of the U. S and myself, regarding the application and accounting for the $550.000. Gold Coin, recently placed on deposit to my credit with the A. T. Assn. at New York,

From your letter of the 10th inst I understand that this money was intended to be an addition to the Bullion Fund, with which I am to pay (by Checks) for the Silver purchased from the Bank of Nevada and such a view is entirely consistent with the requirements of the Coinage Act of 1873 - 27th Sec. I accordingly on notification from the asst. Treas. U. S

U.S. at New York, I credited my Bullion Fund Account with the Sum of $550.000- Gold Coin, and drew my check against the aforesaid Sum for 95% of the Mint Value of 418 Bars Silver, Charging the Bullion Fund with $461.799.61, and at once crediting it with the full value of the Silver purchased. To this the Treasurer sees objections, and I am utterly unable to comprehend his difficulty. The Silver purchased through Checks on Drexel & Co. in April last was a similar transaction, and no objection was raised to that form of accounting. I respectfully submit the matter to you for adjustment, and would earnestly request that you will decide it prior to the close of the month, in order that the account may be adjusted promptly-

Your box, containing five mineral samples, is received. We can promptly give a reply that will cost you nothing.

Nos. 1, 2, and 3, are a little specked with pyrites, or iron and sulphur, which deceive so many persons. We get such daily. They are of no account.

Nos. 4 and 5 are of more consequence; and if worked under favorable circumstances, and with large capital, and a good market, might prove valuable.

No. 4 is a brown oxide of iron, and No. 5 is cubical galena; both of these speak for themselves, and need no preliminary test. But there is no gold or silver, beyond a trace, in any of them. If you insist on a test, by sending twenty five dollars we will get it done by reliable chemists, as we have no time to make such assays ourselves. Yours &c.

Dear Sir.

Yours of the 2a inst is received.

In reply would state, that there is no vacancy in the Mint, with a large number of applications on file. The prospect is that in a short time we will be required to reduce our force of female employees, & regret therefore that it will not be in my power to comply with your request at this time.

Very truly Yours

Supt.

March 8 6

Sir

In reply to your letter of the 1st inst. enclosing one from Secretary Kenady, complaining that the 500 badges forwarded to you for the Mexican Veteran Association are not as ordered, and requiring the mistake to be corrected. I enclose a communication from our Engraver, Mr. Barber, to which I invite your attention, and have to add that the final order to proceed with the striking of the badges was only given after a specimen as now made was submitted and approved, and no intimation given me that the wire bar or roller soldered to the the back of the badge was to be attached after the badges had reached Washington. under the arrangement with a party there. of which Mr. Kenady now notifies us for the first time.

On the 2 d of December last I wrote Mr. Kenady (and herewith enclose a copy of the letter for your information) giving him the price of the badges at thirty cents each, and six cents each for the wire bar at the back, the latter, from the necessity of the case, to be made by private parties out of the Mint, and to "be attached to the model before the bronzing is done." As the bronzing could not be done with a silk ribbon attached, that statement should have opened Mr. Kenadays eyes to the fact of some misapprehension on his part or ours, if there really was any on the part of either, and led him to enquire into and correct it.

The engraved copy of the mounted badge attached to his letter to you of the 1st inst is entirely new to us here, and if it, or a penciled outline of it, had been submitted while the negotiations were pending, would have prevented all trouble and danger of mistake. But after the eagle submitted by Mr. Barber was rejected, I had no further directions on that point nor any intimations from any quarter as to the 'bar' now demanded, or its size, shape or style, and we have done our work in literal compliance with what was agreed upon.

The 'bar' now required by Mr. Kenaday is outside the functions of the Mint. It will have to be made by private parties. What the cost would be, and the time required to get it up I do not think certainly after considerable delay, and a highher price than six cents each. A special die would have to be made, and a cutter to cut them out, and the bars afterwards trimmed up, and finished and stamped. The Mint cannot undertake to either furnish or procure them.

I will have the remaining number of bronze struck and stamped at thirty cents each, and forward them to your office, without any wire bar or roller attached. For anything further than this, I must leave Mr. Kennaday to make his own arrangements elsewhere.

The person, in this city who made the wire bars or rollers then had and soldered them to the back of the bronze with silver, being in moderate circumstances, and being unwilling to look to a distant party for returns, Mr. Barber paid him his money out of his own pocket, at my suggestion, for each lot on delivery, thirteen hundred in all. Upon every principle of honor and justice the amount thus advanced by Mr. Barber should be refunded to him.

Very Respectfully

Referring to your telegram of the 2d inst. I have, after consulting our Melter & Refiner, awarded 10,000 lbs Copper, one half of the quantity advertised for, to Nathan Trotter & Co. of this City, at their bid, 22¾ cts per lb. and at the request of the Melter & Refiner, proposed with your consent, to award the remaining 10,000 lbs to Pope, Cole & Co. at their bid of 22⅝ cts per lb. which is only ⅛ ct of a cent below Trotter & Co. The counterfeit nickel last sent by you, has as you say a better face than the former, but is of the same make and composition. It is a very deceptive and dangerous piece; and it is difficult to devise any protection against it, until we can restore the Silver five-cent piece, and give really full value. This mixture of lead and copper is as cheap as possible, and holds out a great temptation to fraud.

In reply to yours of yesterday desiring the necessity for the entries on the credit (you doubtless mean the debit) side of my "Silver Profit & Loss" for the 4th Quarter, 1875, I state, that as the gain on the entire purchases of the quarter is previously credited to the aforesaid P&L (because the Bullion must be valued at the Coin rate) So, when at the quarterly settlement we find that all the Bullion so credited has not been Coined, the excess gain credited must be put back, in order that the profit on the amount actually Coined may be arrived at. The balance on hand, and adjusted to the average cost of the Bullion, is brought back to its Coin Value, and the gain placed to the credit of Silver Profit & Loss a/c in the succeeding Quarter's a/cs.

It is done solely for the purpose of keeping the above mentioned account close up to the actual gain on the Silver coined, and in order that the balance may be paid into the Treasury as closely as possible.

It is one of the outgrowths of the system recently adopted of accounting for Silver at the Subsidiary Coin Value, and meets the change as I think, very well.

The imitation coinage proposed by L. J. Squire, 29 Park Row New York City, in his advertisement, herewith enclosed, which appeared in the Philadelphia "Evening Star" of the 3d of March inst. is, in my judgment, a direct and unequivocal violation of the final sections 61. 62. and 63 of the Coinage Act of 1873. which prohibit every thing in the resemblance or similitude" of U. S. coins. Under cover of centennial mementoes, the country can be flooded with bogus coins, and the year 1876 be a counterfeiters carnival, unless steps be promptly taken to suppress the illegal traffic.

I respectfully suggest that you call the attention of the U. S. District Attorney in New York to the matter, and that the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department take steps to ascertain whether there is any thing more beneath the surface, than appears on the face of the advertisement.

I duly received from you the letter to you from Mr Keton, Superintendent of the New York Assay Office of March 8th, enclosing one from Mr Mason, Melter & Refiner, of March 6th, desiring us to receive from them other than fine silver for minting purposes.

In reply I herewith submit for information a letter from our Coiner, of March 4th, before Mr Masons letter was written, and the reply of our Melter & Refiner, showing in a very strong light the objectionable character of the [illegible] silver generally received from from the New York Assay Office, and the great difficulty and loss in working it.

This exhibit strikingly justifies the stand heretofore taken by you, (and that our Melter & Refiner should never have departed from) that none but fine silver should be sent to the Mint from the New York Assay Office, and compels me to ask that you will not relax the rule now or hereafter but maintain it firmly, as the only just and proper regulation on this subject for both institutions and the Government.

As you request me to communicate with Mr Acton, I have sent him a copy of our Boiners and Melter & Refiners letters, and stated to him that under existing circumstances I must, unless you instruct me to the contrary, which I hope you will not do, respectfully decline to receive any other than fine silver from that office.

Gentlemen.

Your bid of $7.52 per hundred pounds for Co Brls. Sweeps, payable in gold Coin (Double Eagles) of full weight, will be accepted on Condition that you take them at the marked or Schedule weights, as heretofore, and as all the purchasers do. (There are other bids so near to yours that the difference would be against the acceptance of your offer if you insist upon reweighing, a precedent I could not establish. Please let me hear from you again. Very Resp'y Yours

Sir

In compliance with your directions of Feby 27. ult. I have this day forwarded to the Superintendent of the U. S. Mint at Carson, by the Adams Express, as per the enclosed receipt

Twenty four Reeded Dime Dies
Twenty four Reeded Dime Dies.

To make sure of the work, one dies were hardened, and a number of dimes struck from them, one of which I herewith enclose for your inspection, and which you will see is, like our own dimes, not amenable to any of the criticisms heretofore heretofore received from the Carson Mint

Very Respectfully

Sir

Enclosed I forward for your information a letter received by our Assayer from the Assayer of the Mint at Carson, ordering certain apparatus for his use at that Mint. It will cost about $178. to fill the order. Shall I forwarded the desired supplies, and send the bill to you for payment? It is more agreeable to dealers here to receive payment through your office for articles shipped to the other side of the Continent. It takes less time, and they do not lie out of their money so long.

Please return Mr Hopkins letter letter with your reply.

Very Respectfully
